Sleep Study - "Nothing Can Destroy"

The hotly tipped Minneapolis quartet Sleep Study just released their debut full-length, Nothing Can Destroy, on Tuesday, and have also just put out a promo video for the evocative title-track. While the band doesn't make an appearance in the decidedly retro animated video, you can catch the band on Friday night at the 7th Street Entry for their official record release show. The group seem poised for success with this highly anticipated release, and if the haunting title-track is any indication, Sleep Study should certainly deliver on the promise suggested by their riveting live shows.
